at The Mike Barlow YMCA Theatre,

BOUNCERS is an outrageous and hilarious parody of the disco scene. The four brutish bouncers of the title portray over twenty different characters as we are invited for a night out on the town. We see them as giggly girls and lads on the make preparing for the big night out as we follow their progress to the disco floor. There, we also meet an entire cross-section of disco-goers, including Hooray Henrys, pogoing punks and drunken slobs!

SHAKERS is a fascinating and often hilarious view of the reality which lurks behind a trendy trendy cocktail bar where everyone wants to be seen, from the local check-out girls to the chinless wonders, from the yuppies to the local lads tittering at the thought of a 'long comfortable screw'. We are given a wickedly funny glimpse of this world, and its plastic palms and pina colodas, by four female actors playing the long-suffering waitresses who work there.
